The Sheriff Of Nottingham, Once A Carmelite, Pardons Robin Hood

After 700 years, the spirits of Robin Hood, Little John, Friar Tuck and Maid Marian roam the glades of Sherwood Forest in freedom because Elliott "Metz" Durham, a former Carmelite and the successor to Robin's arch enemy, the Sheriff of Nottingham, has exonerated all the merry archers and their leader "from all accusations of acts contrary to law and order of the past."

"Metz" rode into the forest and read this proclamation near the reputed hideout of the legendary outlaws who robbed only to benefit the poor, committed other crimes only to free the oppressed of England during the 13th century. He said he granted the amnesty to debunk reports, circulated by skeptics, that Robin and his Merry Men were just hoodlums and bandits.

The present Sheriff of Nottingham lived in Carmel from 1924-1932 and operated a hardware store on Ocean Avenue between Junipero and San Carlos. Five years ago he returned for a visit.

At that time he was Nottingham's police commissioner, or more formally, Chairman of the Watch Committee, and had been a member of Nottingham's city council for a dozen years. Just before his Carmel visit he had been elected alderman of the same city and turned down an invitation to run for lord mayor of the city.

During World War II, "Metz" and his wife held open house at their country estate, complete with castle, for servicemen from Carmel.

HOSE FIGHT TONIGHT

Firemen To Parade When The Siren Sounds Tonight

The signal for the start of Carmel's Fire Prevention Week parade tonight will be the blowing of the fire siren at 7 p.m. All the equipment of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department will parade on Ocean Avenue, including the new American LaFrance engine and the 36-year-old Mack truck it replaces.

Following the parade, fire fighting demonstrations will be held at the intersection of Ocean and San Carlos. Afterwards, at the same location, teams of opposing firemen will endeavor to move a balloon to their opponent's goal line by means of jets of water from fire hoses. This is the department's annual water fight—and everyone gets drenched.

Open house at the fire station will be next with cookies, cake and pop served to visitors. Slides will be shown also. Tomorrow, members of the Carmel Fire Department will meet Pacific Grove firemen in a softball game at Sunset Center playfield starting at 7 p.m.

At the fire house on Saturday, beginning at 4 p.m., there will be hose cart races between two teams from Pacific Grove Fire Department, one from the Carmel Valley Fire Department, and Carmel firemen. After the races, there will be fire fighting demonstrations including the use of foam and a burning automobile. Refreshments will be served at the fire station and the day will end with a band playing for dancing on Sixth Street in front of the fire station.

WEATHER

Warmer, mostly sunny into this week end with day temperatures in high 70s, nights high 40s to low 50s. NW winds 10 to 25 mph. 10% chance of rain next week.

Forest Theater Breakfast Party

Anyone who has gone to the Carmel Post Office to pick up mail for 20 years, or longer, is invited to the Longtimers Breakfast at the Forest Theater on October 23. The event, part of Carmel's Golden Anniversary Celebration, is in the tradition of the annual breakfast given every year in the early days of the city at the outdoor theater on Mountain View Avenue.

Starting at 10 a.m., soldiers from Fort Ord will serve pancakes, sausage and coffee in front of the stage on which breakfast tables will be placed against the natural backdrop of pines. Blazing logs in the two stone fireplaces flanking the stage will add to the Carmel atmosphere. Ted Durein will be master of ceremonies and introduce the oldest resident of Carmel and other oldtimers who will tell amusing memories of the town in the last half century.

Margaret Smith, breakfast chairman, says it will be necessary to make reservations on or before October 21 by telephoning either Mrs. R. A. Kocher (624-4713); Mrs. Dale Leidig (624-3002), Mrs. Anthony Blanks (624-3230), or, in the mornings only, Mrs. Fritz Wurzmann (624-7677). Price of the breakfast will be $1.75 and covers expenses including the cost of food which the boys from Fort Ord will cook through the courtesy of their commanding officer, Major General Robert G. Fergusson, whose wife, Charlotte, was a Carmel resident before her marriage.

First Symphony Concert Tuesday To Feature Music Of Renaissance

The 21st season of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra begins on October 17 at Salinas High School auditorium and on October 18 in Carmel's Sunset Center auditorium.

"Exploring Our Symphony Orchestra" will be the theme of this year's five-concert series with the first program featuring late Renaissance music and a brass ensemble playing a Gabrieli sonata.

John Gosling, symphony music director and conductor, describes the forthcoming series by saying, "Through the centuries, composers of genius have brought together the four sections of the orchestra in wondrous harmonies. These composers have, from time to time, created scores for the individual clusters of musicians. This year the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra will highlight, during each concert, one selection composed and performed by just one of the orchestra's great sections."

Gabrieli's composition will feature —on the trumpet—Ernest Smith of Pacific Grove, Greg Sprung and David Hawley of Carmel, and Gale Jacobsen of Pebble Beach. Carlberg Jones from Carmel and Hart Smith from Monterey will represent the horn section, with Alan O'Dea of Seaside and David Pitfield of Carmel performing on the tuba. The trombone group includes Gerald Littleton of Seaside, Richard Burley of Pacific Grove, Milton O'Neill of Monterey, and Mel Won from Fort Ord.

Other Carmel musicians participating in the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra this season include Lloyd Clapper, oboe; Mrs. Roni Cummings, violin; Mrs. Walter De Martini, harp; Mrs. Dorothy Groark, violin; Henry Huntington, cello; Sharon Jones, violin; J. W. Larson, percussion; John Morrice, violin; Mrs. Marjorie Oren, cello; Charlotte Perry, violin; Mrs. Mary Smith, trumpet; and Sheila Webster, bass.

Sharing the spotlight with Conductor John Gosling will be guest concertmistress Judith Poska, who is currently on the staff of the University of California at Berkeley. She has been a featured soloist with many orchestras, and served as concertmistress for the La Jolla Chamber Orchestra, Roger Wagner Chorale, Oakland Chamber Orchestra, San Francisco Ballet Orchestra, and the Cabrillo Music Festival. Miss Poska also participated in the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" earlier this year at the U. S. Naval Postgraduate School.

The musical program of the evening will also include the Overture to Ruslan and Ludmilla by Glinka; The Unanswered Question, a work of American composer Charles Ives; the Royal Fireworks Music of Handel, and Tschaikowsky's Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, Op. 64.

Ticket information can be obtained from the Monterey County Symphony Association Office, P.O. Box 3851, Carmel, or by telephoning 624-4125.

THE RUSSIANS ARE COMING THE RUSSIANS ARE COMING (United Artists). The screenplay is based on Nathaniel Benchley's novel about a Russian submarine that comes too close to America for a curious look and gets stuck on a sandbar 400 feet offshore.

It's a zany comedy in which residents of an island off the shore of New England panic and proceed to defend their land against a landing party of Russians, who are only looking for a way to get back to sea before they start World War III. (General Audience).

Village Theatre Selected To Show 'Der Rosenkavalier'

Carmel's Village Theatre has been selected to present an exclusive showing of the widely acclaimed film classic "Der Rosenkavalier" on October 26, at 8 p.m.

"Der Rosenkavalier" was produced and directed by Dr. Paul Czinner, whose films of the Bolshoi and Royal Ballets proved that the art of the ballet can be successfully transferred to the cinema. Now he repeats that success with opera. Dr. Czinner's "Der Rosenkavalier" has all the gaiety, lighthearted romance, comedy and intrigue of the original Strauss masterpiece.

"Der Rosenkavalier" was filmed at the famed Salzburg Festival, recorded by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra with Elisabeth Schwarzkopf—acclaimed by every musical capital in the world — portraying Princess Von Werdenberg.

"Der Rosenkavalier" is the result of years of thought and planning, months of careful filming and editing. It is more than just a film: It is a classic.

MARIACHIS PLAY AT FIESTA

Lured by the mariachi music of Manuel Campos' band, also the singing of Mexican ballads by Jose Romero, people Sunday at La Fiesta de San Carlos de Borromeo crowd towards the grandstand. Thousands attended the feast of the Mission's patron saint and were amused by games, attracted by colorful articles in booths, Spanish dancers, and the delicious barbecued chicken served under the spreading trees in the sunny Mission courtyard.

Decks Cruised Mediterranean

A week ago today, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Deck returned after 25 days of exciting travel to Mediterranean ports, part of Europe and the British Isles. On one of four chartered flights, the public accountant and his wife flew with some 400 Shriners from Los Angeles via New York to Zurich, Switzerland. After a jaunt to Interlaken, the pampered travelers boarded a special train to Genoa, where the luxurious MS Victoria awaited them to begin a cruise to Corsica, Sardinia, Sicily, Tunis, Mallorca, Casablanca, Gibralter, Lisbon, Barcelona and Nice.

A solemn note in the Decks' journey was their visit to the cemetery in Palermo, Sicily, where they found the 2,800 graves of American servicemen scrupulously tended.

Trips to the casbahs of Tunis and Casablanca captivated them, and Mr. Deck has at least 400 color pictures to show these and other interesting spots.

After a stop in Gibralter, the ship docked at Barcelona before the run to Nice, where the Decks boarded a plane to London to spend a few days before returning to the United States.

A Wedding In Yosemite

Newlywed Dr. and Mrs. Seeley W. Mudd, the former Virginia Bassett Shaw, returned Sunday from a wedding trip to Aspen, Colorado, and are now at home in Pebble Beach. The couple's marriage took place on October 1 in the old chapel in Yosemite Valley before a small group of close friends.

Mrs. James B. Moffatt of San Francisco was Virginia's matron of honor, and Mr. Courtland Blake of Pasadena served as best man.

Mrs. Ansel Adams of Carmel Highlands was hostess at a champagne reception in the home the Adamses maintain in Yosemite before the wedding party dined at the Ahwahnee Hotel.

The new Mrs. Mudd is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia H. Bassett of San Francisco and the late George W. Bassett. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Seeley G. Mudd of San Marino.

A delightful turn to the Mudds' stay in Aspen was a visit with Francis and Portia Whitaker, who appeared both busy and happy, according to Virginia.

Greene Studio Has New Role

The vast and beautiful Lincoln Street studio created and lovingly built by the late Charles Sumner Greene, has been thoughtfully remodeled and added onto by his son, Thomas Gordon "Did" Greene, and his wife Betty. Since returning after many years in the Middle East, Did and Betty have made their home in Carmel Valley. Their move to the enlarged studio will revive many happy memories for friends of the Greene family . . . revive, too, memories of the concerts presented there by world-renowned artists through the generosity of its owners.

The transition has not been an easy one—there is a neglected and once charming garden to be reclaimed; there have been interruptions such as a business trip to Washington, D. C.; the inevitable complications of moving possessions; and the delightful but time-consuming care of a grandchild. Young Nathaniel Greene is their guest while his parents, Philip and Gay Greene, are in Greece.

Plaxtons Were Fascinated

"Patting the trunk of a 4,000 year old Bristlecone pine really makes you feel like a kid," remarked Mrs. Arthur Plaxton in describing the Plaxtons' two-week vacation on the eastern slope of the Sierra. With their camp trailer, they made headquarters at Convict Lake, enjoying the crisp clear air of the high Sierra and noting the first snows on the surrounding peaks. "The rare ancient trees were as fascinating as everything we had read about them," reports Mrs. Plaxton.

Returning through the Mojave Desert, the travelers found the dense air of smoggy Bakersfield a reminder to count their blessings in living in Carmel. The city's finance officer returned to his desk again, Mrs. Plaxton to catching up with family and household.

Expatriates Return

John Upton, who has left and returned many times since the early 40s, is "home" with his wife, Ruth, planning to make Carmel their permanent residence. Johnny, accomplished linguist, musician, and writer, was a contributor to the Pine Cone for a number of years. Equally at ease with several instruments in classical music or jazz, he played with local groups, also in Nevada and Mexico.

During several years in Mexico, he made his home in Ajijic but traveled extensively through the country. His perceptive interest in the people of that country, where he taught English to Mexicans, Spanish to Americans, led to visits to Yucatan and the ancient Mayan areas—and his eventual project of a Mayan dictionary, on which he is still working.

Now, the Uptons are back after almost two years in Spain, where John earned his master's degree in Spanish through New York University at the University of Madrid. Ruth, a former San Francisco and Reno business executive, also attended courses there. France was their favorite for travel outside of Spain, Switzerland next.

The Uptons are currently guests of their old friends Dr. and Mrs. Charles Rosewall, until they find a house to their liking.

Golden Wedding Observed

On September 24, Edward W. Jensen and his wife, Leona, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a dinner and reception in Pine Inn's Crystal Room. Relatives and friends from Illinois, where the couple was born, were among the 22 guests who enjoyed the delightful dinner party, also the special program planned by their daughter, Mrs. Herbert (Valerie) Heron of Carmel, and their son, Kenneth, of Oakland.

Two framed pictures of their wedding in Chicago in 1916, one with a pleated border made from the bride's satin wedding gown, were displayed at the head table. A running commentary accompanied the showing of snapshots taken prior to and during their 50 years of married life, which were projected on a large screen.

Mrs. Jensen greeted guests wearing a gold dress and lace mantilla which was adorned with a corsage of her favorite flowers, gardenias.

A manzanita gold-coin tree was among lovely gifts received by the Jensens, who plan a delayed anniversary trip next Spring to view the beauty of the desert wild flowers.

Stephensons Had A Guest

Bob and Patty Stephenson heard a lot of fascinating inside details about our space program from Patty's brother, Craig Shattuck, when he visited them recently. The former Seattle resident, an associate of Boeing at Cape Kennedy, Florida, was on the coast to attend the Associated Management Symposium Workshop in San Francisco. During his brief stay in Carmel, Mr. Shattuck also enjoyed seeing his aunt, Mrs. Milton (Lucille) Stitt, and her family.

Tomorrow evening the Manor will be celebrating its third anniversary. There will be a social hour before dinner and a special program presented honoring the board of directors of the Manor and Dr. and Mrs. William Pratt.

FOREST HILL MANOR
Pacific Grove

Significant recognition has been given Mrs. Bonnie Merrill for her many years of club work, in San Mateo County, by the Past Presidents Assembly of San Mateo County. It reads:

GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS CERTIFICATE OF HONOR

In recognition of distinguished service for the Community and the Nation,

Charter member of Past Presidents Assembly of San Mateo Co., Calif.

Mrs. Merrill is widely known for her philanthropic service and interpretive readings before various clubs. She has lived at the Manor for the past seven years and is now spending her days in the health unit there.

HACIENDA CARMEL

An art exhibit of 30 enlarged colored photographs by Edward C. Graves started on October 9. This exhibit is called "Beauty in Wilderness" and has been on display all over the U. S., including the Smithsonian Institution. Paintings by Emily Graves, Greata Rockey and Emily Bleecker are being shown, too.

Mary Walker, a resident of Hacienda Carmel for the past six years, celebrated her 90th birthday on October 7. The women's group acknowledged this occasion with a party in her honor.

PINPOINT PROFILES
Mary Walker

Approaching her 90th birthday on October 7, Mrs. Mary Walker of Hacienda Carmel, was eagerly looking forward to that special day when well-wishers by the score came in to greet her.

Mary was born in Leavenworth, Kansas, in 1876, of rugged pioneer stock. One of her early ancestors, Captain Henry Vanderburg, served under our first President, George Washington—a fact Mary is very proud to relate.

As a child she was full of the "old Nick" as she put it. Come Valentine's Day she was so tired of the ordinary orthodox way of giving valentines she changed the custom to suit her fancy by giving her sister Lucy a valentine envelope full of sugar. Of course, she was given the job of cleaning up the sugar—but she had had her fun, too.

Lucy loved her sister in spite of her trick and, as Mary revealed, "If it hadn't been for her encouragement I doubt if I would have ever finished school." As it turned out Mary went on to the University of Minnesota, then to Winona State Teachers College, and took an advanced graduate course in education. At this point she received a poem written especially for her from one of the "Profs." It read:

"I have been sitting here intent,
Sweet Marie
On a letter that you sent here
to me.
I can hear the children screech
When they know who's going to teach.
Oh! I tell you she's a peach,
Hully Gee!"

This poem must have been sent in a moment of frivolous abandonment! Which goes to prove even professors are not always confirmed dignitaries as we are apt to think.

Another story Mary tells is about when her roommate in college had left to go home for the holidays and Mary was alone. She had quite a severe case of homesickness until the landlady of her apartment took her in hand. She gave her oil paints, brushes and so forth—then asked her to copy a painting on the wall. It was an oil painting of a colorful sunset on the Mediterranean. Surprisingly enough, Mary made a remarkably good copy. This same picture is now hanging on the wall in her own apartment in the Hacienda. Looking around we discovered many other watercolors by Mary.

During her college days she was asked to edit the year book, which she called "Gitchi-Gumee" (incidentally, the name given to Lake Superior by the Indians). She later married Harry Walker whom she met in Colorado, where she was teaching. They migrated to California — Lodi area — where they purchased a five-acre vineyard. Subsequently, they bought 50 acres more of Tokay and wine grapes.

Mary worked alongside her husband on the ranch. She loved to watch the packers in the packing shed and even did some packing herself. Quite suddenly. Harry died in 1960. Mary then moved into Hacienda Carmel after selling the vineyard.

RADIO PROGRAM

"Building Marriage on a Solid Foundation" is the title of this week's Christian Science radio program on "The Bible Speaks to You" series. It will be heard at 7:30 a.m. over station KGO this Sunday. The need for a spiritual dimension in every marriage will be discussed.

Red Cross Volunteers Issued Certificates

Certificates were issued to the following new volunteer workers who took the orientation course given at the Carmel Red Cross chapter on October 5 and 6: Mrs. Ray B. (Katherine) Glassley, Mrs. James (Ursula) Mulroony, Mrs. Kenneth (Marjorie) Copsey, R.N., Mrs. Dorothy Gozenbach and Mrs. Paul (Eleanor) Hamilton. Four high school girls who completed the course are Nancy Shively, Linda Zanides, Mary Jo Woolsey and Susie Du Bets, who are enrolled as Youth Volunteers and will start work at once as hospital aides at Fort Ord, under the supervision of Mrs. Beth Zanides.

Also participating in the orientation were Pam Kelsey and Marjorie Carter for the Youth Volunteers and Mrs. R. C. Brown and Mrs. Robert (Glenda) Selle, R.N.

KENNETH CARROLL

Safeway Names Valley Manager

Kenneth Carroll has been selected by Safeway Stores to manage the new store that opens soon in Carmel Valley. He is presently manager of the Safeway Store in Watsonville.

Carroll started his career with Safeway as a food clerk in June, 1959, at the Monterey store. He gained his grocery and produce experience in Monterey and Pacific Grove and was appointed assistant manager in Pacific Grove in November, 1962. He later served as assistant manager in Salinas and Gilroy.

Born in Richview, Illinois, he attended the Centralia, Illinois, junior college and Southwest Missouri State College, majoring in business administration.

Ken Carroll served with the U. S. Army from 1956-1958. He is married and the father of two children.

Safeway Store In Valley Will Open Next Week

The new Carmel Valley Shopping Center Safeway store, located at Carmel Valley Road and Dorris Drive, will open for business at 9 a. m. on Wednesday, Safeway officials announced Monday.

The huge new supermarket covers 22,032 square feet in the shopping center, which is being developed by Mid-Valley Associates and designed by Olof Dahlstrand of Carmel.

The Safeway building is rustic in design and character, as is the over-all center design motif.

The building has a gabled roof line with shake shingles. There will be a covered walkway at the front and side of the building for customer convenience and shelter.

The store interior decor features attractive structural beam framework, lively wall colors, graphic cut-out wall signs and high density illumination.

Numerous wide aisles have been provided to make it easy for customers to reach the more than 9,000 items which the store will stock. Customers' purchases will be quickly processed through the six high speed checkouts. The store has been completely air conditioned for year-around comfort. Space has been provided for 130 cars in the vicinity of the Safeway store. Operating hours for the new store will be 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday and 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on other days.

SHRINE OFFICERS TO BE HONORED

Golden Rule Shrine No. 43 will honor the appointive officers of the order at eight p.m. tomorrow in the Masonic Temple of Pacific Grove. The appointive officers of Golden Rule cordially invite all sojourners of the order to attend and promise a very pleasant evening.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel 624-3881.

Barbecue Sunday Honors Sen. Farr

An old-fashioned steak barbecue will be held at the Monterey County Fairgrounds on Sunday afternoon to honor State Senator Fred Farr (D-Monterey). The event, sponsored by Friends of Fred Farr, will take place from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m.

According to Mrs. Martin Glasser and Sam Karas, co-chairmen for the event, the afternoon has been planned specifically as a family affair and children under 12 will be admitted without charge. Hot dogs will be available for them.

The event is planned to provide local residents an opportunity to meet their Democratic Senatorial candidate.

"The need to campaign throughout the expanded Senatorial District of 8,000 square miles, has restricted the amount of time available to Senator Farr within Monterey County. Sunday's barbecue will present his local supporters and friends with an opportunity to meet him and to enjoy an afternoon of good food and interesting entertainment," Sam Karas says.

Tickets at $2.00 are now available. For additional information telephone 624-5321.

Jack Hassett

Funeral services were held Saturday in Los Altos for Jack B. Hassett, a former Carmel resident who died October 6 in a San Jose Hospital after a brief illness.

With his wife, Gladys, whom he married in 1916, Mr. Hassett made his home in Carmel from 1956 until a few months ago. A native of Oregon, he was 73.

After a varied business career, Mr. Hassett retired some 11 years ago as a contractor. He was a member of Mill Valley Lodge 356, F & AM, Scottish Rite, San Francisco, Al Malaika Shrine of Los Angeles and a 30-year member of Kiwanis Club.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Marilyn L. Howard of Mountain View; a son, John S. Hassett of San Jose; a sister, Mrs. William Slatich, and a brother, James, both of San Francisco; and two grandchildren.

DFG Counting Fish . . Fishermen, Too

A familiar figure haunting the fishing areas from San Francisco to Yankee Point is Dan Miller of the Marine Resources Operations, California Department of Fish and Game. Miller and his staff of seven are conducting a survey of all ocean sport fish caught in the above designated area. From the information obtained, they hope to get the total number of sportsmen who use the ocean in this area, the number of fish caught, and the total number of all species caught.

Every five years, the fish and game department conducts this type of study. With the data obtained, it makes accurate maps regarding fish habitants and habits, for the public's use. It also determines if certain areas are being over-fished, and pinpoints favorite fishing spots of fishermen.

Pier fishing, shore fishing, party boat fishing, skiff fishing, and skin diving sport fishing results are all part and parcel of this survey.

The marine division just completed a study on the Blue Rock Fish, and plans to recommend legislation this year that all Blue Rock Fish, under ten inches, be thrown back into the ocean.

Between San Francisco and Yankee Point, there are 48 check points with which the department keeps in close contact. All the data obtained is fed into a computer and processed for future use. Miller states that the department plans to do a study on the ling cod next.

KIWANIS ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Outgoing president Charles "Chuck" Dawson hands over the gavel this week to Robert McIntyre, newly elected president of Carmel Kiwanis Club. Officers elected last week to serve with the new president are Robert Connell, first vice president; Charles Mulkey, second vice president; Webster Downer, treasurer. Board members are Kenneth Dyer, Burt Richards, Frederick Duhring, Jack Belangee, Hal Reliford and Ed Goodrick.

Kiwanis members will be selling programs this weekend at the Laguna Seca road races to raise funds for some of their many projects.

REPORTS FROM R.L.S

Club Program Extensive

As usual, this past week at Stevenson School was filled with activity and excitement, as the staff and boys swing into the full Fall program of academics, sports, socials and clubs.

One of the most valuable activities on the campus is the extensive club program that has a three-fold purpose: first, as a supplement to education (with the heavy academic requirements for the college-bound there is little room for special interests except outside the classroom); second, for recreation (an important factor for our resident boys); and third, for achievement (this provides an avenue where boys can prove their skills).

Math Club

Some of these clubs are: The Math Club organized for the "purpose of associating ourselves in an effective way for the cultivation of our common interest in mathematics." Membership is limited to 20 students and all members must have an 80.0 or better grade point average. The club hopes to further interest in math by bringing speakers to the campus, attending seminars, and working with college instructors in the Monterey region. Club president is Taylor Grant, with sponsors being Admiral Harold Pullen and Colonel Paul Hamilton.

Radio Club

The Radio Club has the purpose of getting an FCC station for the RLS campus. President is Randy Burg with chief engineer Rick Johnson, both with "ham" radio licenses. Chris Baumgart has a CB (Citizen Band) permit. Among other projects, the club plans on making contact with the families of boys who live in other parts of the world. First contact is with Rick Johnson's family in Costa Rica. Club sponsor is John Austin, a reserve officer in the Army Signal Corps.

Forensic Club

The Winston Churchill Forensic Club sponsors the growing debate and forensic program at RLS, plus, they provide conference directors and student leaders for any speech activity on campus. There will be 15 tournaments held this school year, ending with the state finals in Santa Barbara. Club president, for the second year, is Larry Conningham, with John Englander as vice president and Bill Kondrat as the "conference chairman." Forty boys are active in this program. The first "meet" is on Saturday, at Soquel.

Chess Club

The Chess Club will hold tournaments, hear lectures, and provide another intellectual outlet for students. Dave Wilson is sponsor, with Grover Wickersham as president, Jim Merritt, vice president, and Bob Ervin, secretary.

Bridge Club

There are also language clubs, a coin club, the Knomes (a ski club), the Letterman's Club, AAU Athletic Club and the Ushers Club.

What with all these clubs meeting, the first dance of the season this Saturday, seven athletic contests (Water Polo (2), Soccer (3) and Cross Country (2), Fire Week observance, two seminars and one lecture, and the MRA Sing-Out 1966 at vespers last Sunday, it was quite a week . . . but normal!

City Council Action

During its October 5 meeting the council approved circulation of an annexation petition in the Mission Tract II area which has asked to join the city. Acquisition of the portion of the beach which is not owned by the city was dropped from the agenda as the owner of the beachland between Santa Lucia and Martin Way had not consented to the acquisition. The forestry commission was continued to December 31,1968, in first reading of an ordinance. First reading was also given to two ordinances which will allow budget changes by resolution of the council instead of by ordinance, thus facilitating any changes in the city's budget after it is adopted. The new law will demand that all department purchase orders be filed with the city's finance officer the next business day after head of any department executes them.

Carmel's old Mack fire truck has found a temporary home at La Playa garage, Fire Commissioner Eben Whittlesey reported. Eventually it is hoped this will be housed in the citys new corporation yard facility on Junipero Street.

PARENTS GO TO SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stuart were among the Carmel High School parents who took part in Back To School Night on October 4. They are fascinated by what is to be seen through the microscope in the science class taught by Ralph Kahl who stands behind them. Students assisting in the evening's program are Connie Wermuth, Anne Warmington, Ed Kawananakoa and Tim McCarthy. Mr. and Mrs. James Kramer head the high school parents' group this year.

Other officers of the newly organized "Padre Parents" are Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hicks, vice chairmen, Mrs. Fern Wheatland, secretary, and Barney Laiolo, treasurer.

Padre Parents will meet next on November 1 for a panel discussion on "Books, Bottles, Sex and Hotrods," a combination of subjects guaranteed to interest all parents with children of high school age.

Few men during their lifetime come anywhere near exhausting the resources dwelling within them. There are deep wells of strength that are never used.

WHAT'S COOKING WITH WINE?

October is vintage festival time in California. Tree leaves turn from green to red, gold, bronze. Grape harvest is on! If you can't tour this beautiful wine country now, the very next best plan is to cook with wine. Combined with a careful use of herbs, nothing rewards kitchen efforts better than wine cuisine "know how."

Acre upon acre of the best vineyards are California's bounty. In the original Italian wine cellars were stored such aromatic bouquets as rosemary, oregano, sweet basil, the more potent garlic and onion and the sturdy root vegetables. Combined with wild game, meat, poultry, plus fresh fish and fruits, wine and herbs show their versatility. They work their magic in a subtle and exciting manner.

The Home Advisory Service of the California Wine Institute has followed tradition with fascinating innovations included. Their advice is to taste while cooking for enjoyable results and not to worry about the alcoholic content of wine since it evaporates during cooking —only the pleasurable flavors linger.

Herewith are some deliciously easy and decorative dishes from the California Wine Institute sent exclusively for our PARTY PLANS. They make charming luncheon or supper menus.

LUNCH OR SUPPER NO. 1
Chicken Aspic Loaf
Corn Sticks
Cheese and Apples Pacifica
Tea or Coffee

CHICKEN ASPIC LOAF
(Serves 8)

One envelope plain gelatin; ¼ cup cold water; 1 (10½-oz.) can chicken broth; ½ cup California sauterne, chablis or other white dinner wine; 1 tsp. seasoned salt; dash of tabasco sauce; 2½ cups chopped cooked chicken; ¼ cup sliced green stuffed olives; ¼ cup chopped canned green chile; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Heat chicken broth, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Blend in wine, salt and tabasco; cool until slightly jelled and thickened. Stir in chicken, olives and chile; fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into oiled loaf pan and chill 5 hours or until firm. Unmold and garnish with carrot curls, giant ripe olives and red lettuce. Center top with hard-cooked egg slices sprinkled with paprika. Pass a small bowl of mayonnaise flecked with chopped chives. Gelatin may be spooned into individual molds for bridge plate-luncheons. Or, recipe may be doubled to fill larger mold for a buffet supper. When doubling recipe, increase gelatin by one-half, using 3 tbsps. instead of two.

CORN STICKS
(Makes 12)

One cup sifted all-purpose flour; 2 tsps. baking powder; 3 tbsps. sugar; ¾ tsp. salt; 1 tsp. onion powder; 1 cup yellow stone-ground cornmeal; 1 egg; 1 cup milk; ¼ cup melted butter.

Grease well 2 corn stick pans (6 sticks each). Place in hot oven (425 F.) and heat to sizzling. Meanwhile, sift together flour, baking powder, sugar, salt and onion powder. Stir in cornmeal. In a separate bowl, beat egg slightly; blend in milk and butter. Combine dry and liquid mixtures with a few rapid strokes. Remove hot pans from oven. Portion batter into pans. Return to oven and bake 20 minutes. Serve hot with butter pats and jelly or preserves.

(Servings unlimited)

Red or golden Delicious apples; small squares cream, Cheddar or Jack, and Roquefort cheese; small skewers; California port.

Wash apples, dry and rub lightly with a little oil to give them a high gloss. Wipe off with paper toweling. Remove core of each apple to within an inch of bottom. Carefully cut apple into wedges to within an inch of bottom so apple retains its whole shape. Skewer a cube each of 3 kinds of cheese. Set one cheese skewer into center of each apple. Accompany with salt and glasses of mellow California port, slightly chilled. To prevent discoloration, prepare apples just at serving.

LUNCH OR SUPPER NO. 2
Western Oyster Stew
Oyster Crackers
California Fruit Salad
Hot Biscuits
Tea or Coffee

WESTERN OYSTER STEW

Four tbsps. butter; ½ cup finely chopped green pepper; 4 tbsps. flour; 1 tsp. seasoned salt; paprika; 2 cans (10-oz., each) whole oysters; 2 cups heavy cream or undiluted evaporated milk; 1½ cups California sauterne, chablis or other dry white dinner wine; butter, finely chopped parsley; grated nutmeg.

Melt butter in heavy saucepan. Add onion, then blend in flour, seasoned salt, and paprika to give a pinkish glow. Drain oysters, saving liquid. Blend oyster liquid into flour mixture. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce begins to thicken. Blend in cream. Add oysters (whole or cut into bite-sized pieces, as desired). Stir in wine. Simmer over low heat (this is safer done in top of double boiler over slow fire) until flavors are blended. Let stand about an hour, then reheat and serve piping hot, topped with butter, parsley and grated nutmeg.

This version of oyster stew varies from the "Down East" traditional recipe. The change is refreshingly good for a dry white wine adds a complementary flavor. It may be served proudly as a first course at a dinner party, or in generous-sized pottery bowls for a Sunday night supper or after golf, bowling or the cinema, theatre or concert. In front of a blazing fire sitting and sipping on the hearthstone "a la cricket" just after a brisk foggy walk on the beach. Quite as super as it sounds.

Two cups California Rose wine; 2/3 cup sugar; 1 tsp. grated lemon rind; 4 tbsps. lemon juice; fresh mint sprigs; salt to taste; 2 quarts assorted fresh fruits and berries—such as fresh pineapple and papaya wedges, grapefruit, mandarin and orange sections, melon balls, strawberries and raspberries, peeled sliced figs and firm bananas; crisp greens.

Simmer 1 cup wine, sugar, lemon rind and juice with mint about 5 minutes. Remove from heat; add salt and remaining wine. Cool and remove mint. Pour cooled syrup over all fruits except berries and bananas. Cover and chill well for several hours. Add berries (whole or sliced) and pile the chilled marinated fruits, drained, into lettuce garnished salad bowl, or arrange individually on pretty plates. Serve with:

FLUFFY WINE DRESSING

Blend in top of double boiler: 4 tbsps. sifted flour; 4 tbsps. sugar, 1 tsp. dry mustard; 1 tsp. powdered ginger and 2 tsps. seasoned salt. Stir in ½ cup California Dry Sherry and ½ cup orange or pineapple juice. Cook, stirring now and then, over hot water until mixture becomes thickened, about 15 minutes. Beat 4 eggs with ½ cup water. Stir into first mixture along with ½ cup unflavored wine vinegar. Cook and stir a few minutes longer. Remove and beat smooth, then cool. Fold in 1 cup whipping cream beaten until stiff. Cover and refrigerate until ready to serve. Top bowl with a few whole berries. If you want to use canned or frozen fruits, be sure to taste before adding sugar as it will no doubt de "de trop."

Art News . . .

During the month of October, the Carmel Art Association is featuring two one-man shows—a memorial show of the late Thomas McGlynn and an exhibition of the latest works of Gene Elmore.

Thomas McGlynn received his initial training at the old Mark Hopkins Art Institute (now the San Francisco Art Institute) in San Francisco. A Pebble Beach resident for 25 years, he had, prior to retirement, been a distinguished educator in San Francisco and at the University of California. His work has been shown in Chicago, Portland, Los Angeles and other art centers of the country and his entries have been awarded numerous special honors. He was a member of the Carmel Art Association, Santa Cruz Art Association, American Artists Professional League and the Society of Western Artists.

Gene Elmore, a member of the Carmel Arts Commission, was born in Findlay, Ohio. He obtained a B.A. degree at Bowling Green University in Ohio, also studied at the Academy of Advertising Art, San Francisco, and the Carmel Art Institute. He is a member of the Carmel Art Association. His work has been shown at the Fort Worth Museum, Texas; Ligoa Duncan Galleries, New York City; Boeing Gallery, Fort Worth; and the Artists Cooperative, San Francisco. Awards he has won include honorable mention, California State Fair, 1956; First prize, Monterey Jazz Festival; purchase prize, Las Vegas, Nevada, Art League.

Virginia Conroy (Mrs. Eldon Dedini) was awarded one of the $300 prizes as well as a one-man show later in the year at the Museum of Art Association's gallery, for her painting "Genesis II: Geodic" now on exhibit in the Monterey County Painting—1966 show at the association's headquarters on Lincoln Street. The other two $300 awards went to Ronald Bostwick for "The Master" and Victor Di Gesu for "Sheila."

In addition to the above artists, Fred Martin, director of the San Francisco Art Institute, who acted as judge and juried the show, selected work of the following artists for the exhibition which closes on October 28:

Renee Miller Alberts, Maxine Botkin, Dorothy Bowman, Linda Chrysler, Robert Davey, Norman Disher, James Gore, Margaret Gosling, Ellwood Graham, Tom Gundelfinger.

Roland F. Hall, Dan Hulphers, Marta Huth, Miriam Ibling, Winifred Carmer Marburg, Forrest Moses, David Nelson, William A. Rabinoviteh, Zdenek Rada, Kenneth D. Shaffer, Andrea Spark, Gerald Wasserman, Vern Yadon.

For the rest of October, a one-man show of paintings by Robert Rishell will be displayed at the Zantman Art Galleries on Sixth Avenue between Dolores and San Carlos streets. A native Californian, this artist obtained a bachelor's degree at the California College of Arts and Crafts in 1938. During four years World War II naval service, he had the opportunity to paint a portrait of Admiral Issac Campbell Kidd, the first admiral killed in action in the history of the U. S. Navy. After the war, Robert Rishell returned to California, obtained a master's degree and studied with Xavier Martinez, Maurice Logan and Leon Golden. He conducted art classes until recently when he gave up teaching because demand for his work made it imperative that he devote all his time to painting.

Rishell's work is full of light and atmosphere. He says," I try to bring out of nature the beauty, the delicacy of God's creation and hope that my paintings touch the intellect of the viewer as well as his emotions."

Most recent among the numerous awards Robert Rishell has won are the John Russell Portrait Award in the De Young Museum's 1964 show for "Portrait of Christi." This work also captured the First July Award and the popular vote. Last year he won first place and a gold trophy at the California State Fair art exhibition. This year he has been awarded the First Jury Award and popular vote at the Alameda City Fair and the Jury Award at the National Orange Show Art Exhibit.

Currently on exhibition at the Laky Galleries on San Carlos Street between Fifth and Sixth avenues is work by Giorgi Valenzin of Venice, Italy. The show contains 15 oils, six watercolors and eight encaustics. Most of them depict the city in which he lives. His oils are being shown in Carmel for the first time although his work in watercolor and encaustic has been seen previously at the Laky Galleries. Shows of Giorgio Valenzin's atmospheric interpretations have been exhibited in Paris, Rome, Milan, Florence, Zurich, Lausanne, Geneva, London, Philadelphia, New York and elsewhere in this country and abroad.

Eve Tartar will show her wood constructions at the Von Ruhs Gallery located in the Talbott Building in Carmel Valley from October 18 to November 15.

The artist says of her recent work: "The sea life at Point Lobos has been a source of increasing involvement for me. The waters, rocks, land and life beckon me, and what they reveal seems also to reflect the human spirit. I find both clear definition and symbolism in each form that the force of nature produces, and I synthesize in my constructions the visible aspects with interior experience. I have tapped new dimensions in my work through harmonizing this duality."

During the same period at the same gallery, Winifred Carmer Marburg, 80 years old, after a long career as a painter of the forms of growth observed in Nature, is having an exhibit again. Her recent work, under the title "Intuitions," reveals Mrs. Marburg in an enchanting new mood. These drawings and watercolors are improvisations by a cultivated artist. They are instantaneous expressions of wit and charm and "know-how."

The years of careful study shine through these works of intuitive abandonment. Mrs. Marburg went to Vienna in 1927 to study painting and drawing in order "to try," as she says, "to better understand the contemporary movement which was budding in the arts in those days." She came to Carmel from the East Coast where she exhibited her work for many years.

PLANT EXCHANGE AT WOMAN'S CLUB

The first meeting of the house and garden section of the Carmel Woman's Club on Monday at 2 p.m. will feature an exchange of perennial plants, rooted, and labelled with name and color. These will be displayed in the clubhouse patio under the direction of Mrs. D. MacMillan Kerr, section chairman, assisted by hostesses Mrs. Floyd Pearson, Mrs. Allen Davis, Mrs. Eva McKay and Mrs. Edna C. Brooks.

Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Mrs. Russell Townsend, Mrs. George Thorngate and Mrs. Rolf J. Ullestadt will preside at the tea tables.

AMBASSADOR FREEMAN NPGS GRADUATION SPEAKER

Fulton Freeman, United States Ambassador to Mexico, who has a home in Rancho Rio Vista, addressed 145 officer students at graduation exercises at the Naval Postgraduate School yesterday.

Among the graduates was Lieutenant Commander Charles F. Klusmann, Carmel Valley, the first American to escape from an Asian prisoner of war camp. While at the Postgraduate School Klusmann conducted a relief drive for Laotians which resulted in the shipping of over 10,000 pounds of clothing, food and other materials to that country.

50 Years Ago in Carmel

—THIS WEEK—

Duty Calls—Do Your Part Mass Meeting

Every adult resident of this town should make an effort to attend and take part in the public meeting at Carmel Hall on Friday evening.

The success of the Carmel incorporation plan depends upon the selection of efficient public servants. It is the responsibility of the voters of Carmel to see that men and women of ability be placed in nomination next week.

One of the first matters, if incorporation goes through, is street improvement. Let us plan a City Beautiful. Every tree that stands between curbs should be protected and made a part of winding roads and beautiful street vistas. Save the trees everywhere, but particularly along the streets.

DRAMA SCHOOL OPENS

In recognition of present needs and with a vision for the future, the Carmel School of Dramatic Art has opened in the residence of Mrs. Sydney Yard at Lincoln and Seventh. It is planned to entertain the residents of Carmel with the newest in dramatic literature, stagecraft and music. A number of boarders can be accomodated.

Mrs. Yard is a graduate of the National School of Philadelphia and has instructed at San Jose Normal School, the College of the Pacific and the California School of Oratory. She will be in charge of the department of expression. Del Sarte physical exercises will be taught. Miss Eunice T. Gray will teach music.

HERE'S TO 'UNCLE DE'

A notable happening was the elaborate dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stewart in honor of the 88th birthday of our oldest inhabitant, Delos Goldsmith.

Before the feast, Mr. Stewart drove "Uncle De" to the Mission Ranch for his customary birthday chat with Mrs. Martin, owner of the ranch and a friend for over a quarter of a century. Birthday flowers from many of "Uncle De's" friends graced the festal board of Carmel's "Grand Old Man."

NOTED VISITOR

Mr. Frank Powers called on Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dougherty at La Playa Hotel on Saturday. The Doughertys are here from New York on a brief visit. Mr. Dougherty is an artist and friend of William Ritschel. He has received medals at the Pittsburgh and Panama Pacific expositions for his splendid marines. He spends much time at Point Lobos. (Paul Dougherty later built a studio and home at Carmel Highlands.)

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Plans are on foot for a fine old fashioned Halloween affair. The Methodist Church ladies have the matter in hand. (This Halloween will be the 50th anniversary of the incorporation of the city. Councilman Gunnar Norberg has the evening's celebration in hand.)

Christian Science Lecture On Monday At Village Theatre

Jane O. Robbins
Christian Science Lecturer

"What Is Your Potential?" will be answered from a Christian Science point of view by lecturer Jane O. Robbins, C.S., who speaks in Carmel on Monday.

Her public appearance here is being sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel. The lecture will begin at 12:15 p.m., in the Village Theatre, Dolores at Seventh.

After the war she spent some time in Alaska and flew at different times as a bush-pilot in the Nome-Point Barrow area. Later, she returned to Illinois and became a representative for an aircraft corporation. She is a native of the Province of Ontario, Canada.

In 1955, Miss Robbins moved to Colorado and began devoting her full time to the public practice of of Christian Science healing. She is now on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Send your problems to Sagacious Sal! However, her counsel is based on handwriting analysis as well as psychological theory. Therefore, all letters must be in handwriting. Address your letters to Sagacious Sal, Carmel Pine Cone, Box G-1, Carmel.

Dear Sal,

I work hard and earn a good salary. Then I pay expenses for housekeepers, babysitters, and other household expenses, such as utilities and telephone. Also I do the laundry, shopping, cooking, and much child care. My husband pays the other expenses of our living. But he claims that half my salary belongs to him. Is he right? I think I'm entitled to keep some of my hard-earned money and spend it as I please.

M.K.

Dear M.K.,

By law, I believe the wife's as well as the husband's salary is considered community property in California. But as long as the money is spent for the family's benefit, the person who earns the money may control the exact details of the expenditure.

Your husband's writing shows characteristics of leadership ability. And you show much independence of spirit. I doubt that either of you could ever totally agree together on money matters.

However, if he insists on your sharing your salary with him — then you insist on his sharing "housework-child care" chores with you. Fair is fair!

One thing—you both should have a monthly allowance which is personal.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Atonement as the day-by-day effort to yield one's life to obedience to the laws of God is the theme of this week's Lesson-Sermon titled "Doctrine of Atonement" to be read in all Christian Science branch churches this Sunday.

Jesus' words, "If ye love me, keep my commandments," from the fourteenth chapter of John, are related to this explanation from the denominational textbook: "The Christ was the Spirit which Jesus implied in his own statements: 'I am the way, the truth, and the life;' 'I and my Father are one.' This Christ, or divinity of the man Jesus, was his divine nature, the godliness which animated him." ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.)

The Lesson-Sermon consists of citations from the Bible and from the denominational textbook.

what is your potential?

When you think deeply about it from a religious standpoint, you begin to wonder — can anyone really measure man's potential, or put any limits on it? Can you measure God's love for His creation? No. But we can learn to let it mold and fill our lives. Hear this one-hour public lecture, "What Is Your Potential?" by JANE O. ROBBINS, C.S., a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

READ THE WANT ADS

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

This library will feature pictures of old Carmel during the city's 50th anniversary celebration. We are having a screen made from cork board and will have it covered with pictures of the early days. They will be changed from day to day and will be taken from the Nixon Collection of local history. Remember to come in and look at the pictures, some of which are still unidentified. Perhaps you know who these unidentified people really are and can tell us. When blessings are being counted out . . . lo, your name will lead all the rest!

What happened to Amelia Earhart is a question which has plagued interested people since the day she and her navigator, Fred Noonan, dropped from sight while flying from New Guinea to Howland Island. This was in 1937. In the thirty years since then many theories have been advanced, have been investigated, and have failed to prove either logical or possible. Fred Goerner of San Francisco thinks he has the answer and has recently published a book entitled THE SEARCH FOR AMELIA EARHART. This determined man started researching in 1960, made four trips to the South Pacific, interviewed hundreds of people, and pieced together his solution. The book is as entertaining as a first class detective story. And Mr. Goerner's story seems logical.

Long years of working with words have given Pierre Salinger crisp facility which is delightful to read. WITH KENNEDY covers not only the Kennedy years but also the time with Johnson and the political campaign after his resignation from the President's staff. Even the chapter headings are clever. Don't miss this one.

The book, CATHOLICS, MARRIAGE AND CONTRACEPTION is by John Marshall and bears the imprimatur of the Church. This testifies that the book is free of doctrinal or moral error. Dr. Marshall gives us a reasoning and philosophical treatise on marriage and he says the purpose of his book is "to clarify issues and remove misunderstanding." This it may do, but read it for knowledge and not in the hope that it will tell you to go ahead and use the pill. It will not do that.

Books on work with the handicapped are always helpful and our latest one is called CAREER PLANNING FOR THE BLIND. The author, Dr. Fred Crawford, is blind but his blindness did not prevent him from going on to earn a doctor's degree and make a career for himself. He encourages blind people to recognize their potential and learn ways and means to advance their own careers.

A true spy story that is stranger than any fictionalized account is THE CASE OF RICHARD SORGE by F. W. Deakin. Richard Sorge was a master spy for Russia who posed as a German journalist in Japan. He was trusted by the German Embassy in Tokyo and for years was able to head the Red Army spy ring in the Far East. Eventually he was executed by the Japanese, and only recently was a commemorative stamp issued stamp issued in Russia to honor his work.

Roger Caras has done a book about a renegade wolf which for five years slaughtered farm animals within a 100-mile radius around Custer, South Dakota. He was a rare white wolf and was known as the Custer Wolf, unmistakable because of his color. He was finally killed. Wolves kill only for food unless they have been stalked and baited by man. According to Caras this turns them into killers. Read THE CUSTER WOLF and get the wolf's point of view.

Red Cross Party Marks 50th Year

On October 23, 1916, the National Red Cross granted a charter to a group of prominent Carmel citizens who were organizing a local chapter. Now, 50 years later, on October 23, 1966, the large and busy chapter, which has seen three wars and is actively continuing its work for both military and civilian citizens, is observing the date with a "birthday party." This is to be in the form of an informal dinner at La Playa hotel at 7 p.m.

An interesting program of music appropriate to the occasion will be given by Fort Ord Soldiers' Chorus. The speaker for the evening is Colonel Samuel W. Caldwell, commanding officer at Fort Ord Military Hospital, who has had recent active service in South Viet Nam.

Distinguished guests who will take a bow include General and Mrs. R. G. Fergusson. He is the commanding officer at Fort Ord and Mrs. Fergusson is a Red Cross volunteer and former Carmel resident. Other honored guests will be Senator Fred Farr, a member of the chapter's board of representative directors and a blood donor on the "gallon list"; Congressman Burt Talcott who was a prisoner of war during World War II, and who knows at first hand the importance of the Red Cross work; Colin Livingstone, veteran of World War I who served with the 91st Division at Verdun and in the Argonne Forest and who works actively with the local chapter during fund drives; Delbert Wermuth, Carmel police officer, who was severely wounded during the Korean conflict; Dorothy Welker, Red Cross hospital worker who has recently returned from a tour of duty in South Viet Nam; and 1st Sgt. Gordon McPherson of the Green Berets, now on recruiting duty on the Peninsula.

Planning Director . . Proposition 3

Carmel needs a full time planning director. This is the recommendation the Carmel Planning Commission decided to send to the city council following a special study session Monday night. Considered was material relative to the scope of duties of a planning director provided by Floyd Adams who retires from this position in November. There is also need, the commission advised, for a full-time secretary for the planning director.

Appointed members of a committee to implement the recommendation were Chairman Dorothy von Meier and Commissioners Barney Laiolo and George Willox. Several applications for the planning director job have been received.

The commission also approved a resolution supporting Proposition 3 on the November ballot. This proposition follows a recommendation of the Carmel commission made when evaluating the Monterey Peninsula Area Plan in relation to the Carmel General Plan.

Carmel planners recommended that tax assessment of land kept in agricultural or open space use should receive special tax consideartion, not be evaluated on the basis of market price.

This recommendation was sent to State Senator Fred Farr of Carmel, author of the open space tax differential presented to the voters in Proposition 3.

Carmel planners made their original recommendation after considering the ranch lands south of Carmel, such as Stuyvesant Fish's Palo Corona Ranch and Odello Bros. land which is adjacent to subdivision and shopping center devlopment, therefore, under present tax procedure, can be assessed upon its potential for such development, rather than as agricultural land providing open space.

The commission further approved the sending of their resolution approving the "open space" proposition to other Peninsula civic bodies.

'Ap, Ap, Hooray!' The CTapCJS Is Ready To Reenact

Monterey is going to be captured and uncaptured on October 22, 1966, just like it was 124 years ago.

This time it will be accomplished by the one-year-old Commodore T. ap Catesby Jones Society (CTapCJS) in the very best tradition of the American naval officer it is dedicated to honor.

The invasion fleet has been assembled, Mexican ground forces are in readiness, a landing site is available and the official cannoneer, Robert M. Frank, awaits the command to fire, 13 times.

At 3 p.m. Unified Fleet Commander Robert L. Grate will effect a landing on the beach between Fisherman's Wharf and Municipal Pier No. 2 in Monterey.

White flags of surrender will be displayed by a goodly number of bandoleered Mexican generals who will fall in behind the "ap" pennant for the march to the Presidio.

In the parade will be the junior commodores, a drum and fife corps, also well wishers, as the colorful party surges along Decatur and Pacific streets to the conquest area.

A messenger will interrupt the victory ceremony with the disquieting information that war does not exist between the U. S. and Mexico.

Amid a festive outburst, the "ap" pennant will be hurriedly hauled down to announce retreat to the beach.

At 4:30 p.m., the Jones' forces will head to sea after symbolically handing California back to Mexico after 30 hours of occupation just like it happened back in 1842.

Out of a total membership of 642, there are 89 members of the CTapCJS in Carmel and it is hoped that many "aps-by-the-sea" will join in the fun—somewhat costumed.

All are invited to a brief 5 p.m. cocktail meeting at Cerrito's-on-the-Wharf followed by a fandango and banquet in the Sloat Room of the Mark Thomas Inn.

Volunteers may offer their services by writing Society Commodore Bertram F. Rudolph at Box 1842, Monterey, or by telephoning the following: Assistant Pageant Director Richard Hopelain (624-1436); Assistant Over-all Co-ordinator Barbara J. Burdick (624-6896); Flag Pole Manager, Victor S. Velissaratos (624-7038); Junior Commodores Committee Chairman Violet M. Hess (624-1622); Unlanding Publicity Director Dorothy C. Ronald (624-5653).

Stock Market Notes

By Hugh Hannon

There's some good news on the financial scene. Interest rates are still tight but they show signs of steadying. And best of all the rise in interest rates stopped when the Federal Reserve announced "that orderly bank credit expansion is appropriate in today's market." That and a couple of other statements sound like the government doesn't want money to get any tighter, and the fact that the interest rate panic quieted down after these statements hints that we may have seen the worst of tight money.

If this is true, you are going to wish you had bought some Pacific Lighting which pays 6% at 25 and is an A rated west coast utility. Utilities are traditionally the first to respond (and they have been firm in this last market drop) with confidence in the rest of the market coming back some months later. So we may have seen the bottom of the utilities but probably not the industrial stocks. American Tel & Tel also acts like it is a good buy and has held well these last two weeks while the market dropped.

When the stock market finally starts up again, which group will go fastest? This writer's guess is the glamour group (stocks with low dividends and big prospects for future earnings increases). Airlines: Eastern now about 70 could earn $10 to $11 per share in 1967 so the stock could easily go up to 110 (ten times earnings). In the future more and more people are going to fly.

Electronics: who knows what fantastic new products will come out of these research labs. My favorites are those in the IBM area: RCA, GE, Sperry Rand, SCM, Control Data, Recognition Equipment, etc. depending on how speculative you want to get.

Scientific Instruments: Hewlett-Packard, Beckman Instruments, Scientific Data systems. The future in this field looks fantastic.

Let's not forget how well our old friend J. C. Penney has been holding at 50. They just bought into the insurance business. Love that Penney!

Ronald Reagan Speaks

utes as he touched on the subjects of highway department controls; leasing of undeveloped land to private concessionaires; and tax incentives for greenbelts. He also discussed the citizen's basic right to own and control property; a review of the administration at the Berkeley campus; twice as much crime in California as in the rest of the nation; riots at Watts in relation to job training; and an antiquated welfare system which destroys the moral fiber of its recipients.

He tied soaring welfare costs to excessive property taxes that have brought the cost of government to the breaking point for the people of California.

Mr. Reagan said that California needs the leadership of someone who believes in the people's capacity, not one man's, and that the governorship should be limited to two terms — starting with this next election.

Virginia Nielson

County coroner's officials ruled as suicide the death of Mrs. Virginia A. Nielson, 60, whose body was found by them in her auto Tuesday on an isolated road on the ridge between Palo Colorado and Rocky Creek. The car, with a hose running from the exhaust pipe to its closed interior, was discovered at almost the same spot where her husband, the late Clines Nielson, took his life in the same manner 15 months ago.

A partner in the Nielson-Banfield Real Estate Agency in the Garrapata region, Mrs. Nielson formerly owned a florist shop in Carmel, where she and her husband lived for over 15 years.

Funeral services are pending instructions from her only known survivor, a sister in Texas.
